

Worksheet 6: Conflict Resolution Role Plays

Number 1:

You work in small store. Your co-worker is consistently 15 minutes late in getting to work. This is difficult for you because you pick your child up at school, and this has made you late. You have attempted to discuss this with your coworker. They state that they have a hard time getting to work on time because of the bus. What would you do?

Number 2:

Your boss seems to be unreasonable about the amount of work that you need to accomplish. She always gives you big projects to work on Friday afternoon and expects them by Monday. What would you do?

Number 3

Your partner does not want to do any of the household tasks. This wasn't a problem before you were working, but now that you are working, it becomes too much.
